CONDITIONS.

1. The present facilities of the Company for the broadcasting of music, singing or speech in conjunction with Television are limited to the hours between 12 midnight and 12 noon, but the Company have recently given demonstrations to representatives of the Postmaster-General and confidently anticipate that extended facilities will be granted for the broadcasting of music, singing and speech in conjunction with Television during ordinary broadcasting hours, and this order is accepted subject to extended facilities being granted by the Postmaster-General. The Company will notify the Purchaser as to the extent of the broadcasting facilities allotted, and the Purchaser shall have the right within seven days of such notification to cancel this order by notice in writing to the Company.

2. Negotiations are in progress for the licensing of a number of Manufacturers to manufacture and sell the apparatus described in the Company's catalogue. The Company, therefore, reserves the right to pass on this order for execution to one or more Manufacturers who may be so licensed by the Company.

3. The Company will use all reasonable endeavours to effect early execution of this order, but will not be responsible for any delay in the execution of the same.

4. Pro forma invoice, including cost of packing, will be forwarded to the Purchaser, and upon payment of the amount payable the goods will be despatched to the Purchaser at his risk, carriage forward.
