DIALOGUE

Talkback ... views from viewers

TO THE EDITOR:

When will you show "Network" on Telecinema?
C.B.L. — Columbus

ANSWER:

We hope to show "Network" in November.

TO THE EDITOR:

Telecinema used to show foreign film classics alot. Why did you stop?
R.M.M. — Columbus

ANSWER:

Your partially right, R.M. Telecinema shows only those foreign films with broad appeal, our experiences have taught us that most of our viewers are not interested in foreign offerings.

TO THE EDITOR:

Can you tell me why older films, such as the original "Mutiny on the Bounty" are not shown on telecinema, I think there are a lot of people who would pay to see old classics uncut! I'm one!

B.R. — Columbus

ANSWER:

Maybe your on to something, B.R.! We've had many requests for older films. Our investigations indicate that there are a number of top-flight older films available to us. We're waiting to hear from all of you out there! What films would you like to see? Drop us a note.

Letters for the DIALOGUE column should be addressed to: The Editor, Telecinema Entertainment Guide, 3770 East Livingston Avenue, Columbus 43227. Please include your name and address. Your name will be withheld on request. Letters are subject to editing for reasons of space and clarity.

BARGAIN BOX

THREE GREAT MOVIES AT NO CHARGE

THE ULTIMATE WARRIOR

In the 21st century, the food supply of the entire world is nearly gone as a result of a plague that has killed off virtually all plant life. Mankind, left to slowly starve, has taken to stealing and killing for the necessities of life; even, at times, resorting to cannibalism. In a ruined

New York City, small communes of people jealously guard what food they have from other communes and lone scavengers. The Baron MAX VON SYDOW runs one such commune with the help of Carson YUL BRYNNER, a quasi-gliadiator and master killer whose job is to protect the commune from attackers or infiltrators. On the commune rooftop, one member has hope growing in pots - seeds that he has coaxed to yield plants and vegetables. The other Communes know it. And they will do anything for food.

Bryenner plays a savage fighting machine who specializes in wicked knife-tricks. His arch enemy is a giant whose weapon is an iron ball and cable with which he can smash skulls or cut off heads.

A fast-paced riveting shocker with an ending that will leave you gasping, this sci-fi action film is rat G.

How bad is it to live in downtown Manhattan? Or even uptown Manhattan? JACK LEMMON and ANNE BANCROFT find out in this off beat comedy by Neil Simon. During their stay they face all the nice things that make N.Y., N.Y. . . . hostile neighbors, rip off artists, mid-summer heat, garbage on the streets, etc., etc., etc. It's a first rate comedy. Ode To Billy Joe

The song created a legend . . . you heard it . . . sung it . . . talk about it. Now here's the film. It's hard to believe, but the song was released in 1967. Six weeks after it's release it sold a million records.

The tune, the lyrics, the voice were obviously appealing, but even more so was the mystery: the secrets of the bridge, or rather of the muddy waters of the Tallachatchie, Bobby Gentry says, are left to the listener to draw his own conclusion.

No longer.

After 23-years of whispers and rumors the muddy Tallachatchie gives up its secrets — the secrets within the haunting ballad that swept Bobbie Gentry to fame and the top of the record charts.

Max Baer directed a motion picture love story that is beautiful, tender, funny, joyous and ultimately so touching that you will never forget it. Starring in the film are ROBBY BENSON and GLYNIS O'CONNOR.

Bobbie Gentry's song left many questions in the minds of the world as that world purchased over 23 million copies and now these questions are answered in a film that has all the standout qualities that could make it a classic hit in the proportions of the original song.

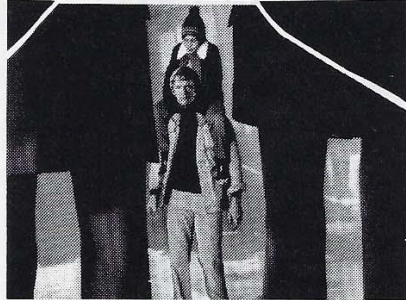

Herman Raucher, who wrote "Summer of '42," has written a screenplay that touches the heart while making one laugh and soar with joy. "Another sleepy, dusty, delta day . . ." Rated PG

BREAKING POINT

A gangland beating . . . should the witnesses get involved. Police protection is promised. A gangland killing and the mob finds out about the witnesses. Will they be safe? It becomes apparent that they won't . . . should they fight back? Can they fight back? It's a thriller gangster film with a lot of tricky twists and turns. You'll find out just how far a man can be pushed until he reaches his "Breaking Point", especially when his family is in danger. A taut film about an ordinary citizen's personal war against a crime boss. Rated R

$1.00 1 hr. 32 min.

It's a hotel you'll never forget . . . "The Ritz." Lots of frantic fun with a cast of crazy comics . . . JACK WESTON, RITA MORENO, JERRY STILLER and KAYE BALLARD as they check in and out of the infamous big hotel. It left them laughing in the aisle on Broadway. Now you can sit wherever you want, thanks to Telecinema. Invite everybody over and put on "The Ritz." Rated R

$2.75 1 hr. 30 min.

99 ^{44%}/_{100%} DEAD!

Gang war . . . pop art style . . . sounds wild, well it is . . . and more. An outstanding cast has been assembled for this exaggerated and bizarre view of violence, honor and love among the underworld. Lots of action when RICHARD HARRIS becomes the mob's coolest enforcer. Here's a movie with absolutely no message. It's one hundred plus minutes of bullets, good looking ladies and big cars. It's a lot of flash and even more fun. You're gonna like it a lot . . . everybody's dying to see it . . . just ask Harry Crown. Who's Harry Crown, well, guess you'll have to tune in to this Telecinema feature film and find out won't you! Rated PG

AT THE MOVIES AT THE MOVIES AT THE MOVIES

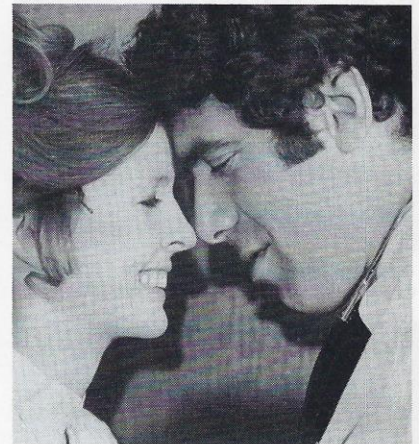

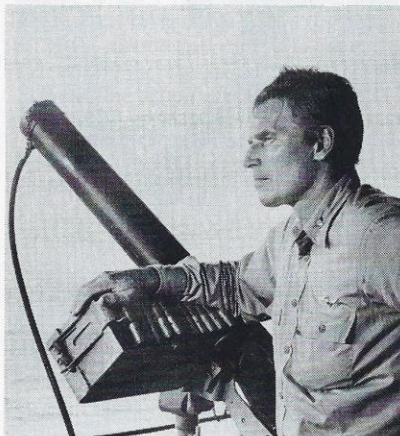

DIANE KEATON, star of "Annie Hall" teams up with PAUL SORVINO and ELLIOTT GOULD for this super comedy. Keaton already being hailed by many film critics and fellow actors as the best comedian in the business, gives Gould the business in this whacky film. Everything happens to everybody and they all point up the fact that it's awfully difficult for this mixed up couple to live together, but it's impossible for them to live without each other. Sound familiar . . . maybe. Lots of fun in any case. Rated PG

Here it is! Against the awesome background of one of the greatest, most decisive naval battles in our history, the viewpoints of both sides . . . Japanese and American are interwoven into one of the most compelling war pictures you've seen. "Midway" a big picture featuring seven top stars and a cast of the most outstanding actors around. A film that shows the personal stories and accounts of courage and sacrifice . . . a film you'll not forget . . . a film about the sea battle that became the turning point in the Pacific during World War II. You'll see actual war footage, filmed in color by Navy Cameras mounted on fighter planes integrated into the film. It's presence gives this saga a powerful reality. "Midway", an exciting affirmation of the American spirit. A big hit of history from Telecinema. Rated PG

MR. BILLION

(Where The Nice Guys Finish First For A Change.)

Mr. Billion is a rollicking, fun-filled comedy in which Guido Falcone (Mr. Billion) is required, by the terms of his uncle's will, to travel to San Francisco from his native Italy within twenty days to claim his billion-dollar inheritance. Shunning conventional air transportation, Mr. Billion TERENCE HILL opts instead for travel by ship, train, auto, helicopter, horseback, bicycle, and parachute. Along the way, Mr. Billion falls in love with a beautiful lady detective VALERIE PER-RINE and encounters the sinister forces of the banking business masterminded by John Cutler JACKIE GLEASON who are determined to thwart Mr. Billion's efforts to claim his rightful inheritance. Mr. Billion is aided and thwarted in his quest for Duane Hawkins SLIM PICKENS, Colonel Clayton T. Winkle CHILL WILLS, Leopold Lacy WILLIAM REDFIELD and others who are involved with the affable Italian. All ends happily for the hero, but not before he is kidnapped, jailed, and goes through many death-defying escapes and action-packed chases. Action, excitement and romance what more could you ask. Rated PG

$2.75 1 hr. 34 min.
Highlighted Week III

The title says it all. Who's in it, who did the music and that it's a very, very funny film. Not even the names have been changed to protect the innocent; primarily because they're all guilty. PETER SELLERS as Inspector Jacques Clouseau . . . who else! The story, well, we won't tell you all of it . . . we won't even tell you any more than this . . . the most famous diamond in the world, the PP has been stolen. It must be recovered and there is only one man who can do the job. You guessed it. Lots of laughs, lots of Sellers. So there! Rated G

$2.75 1 hr. 53 min.

Won Ton Ton

THE DOG WHO SAVED HOLLYWOOD

Movies are going to the dogs! Especially "Won Ton Ton" . . . he's the greatest star of all, the boldest, bravest hero to grace the silver screen. He can't be too bad if he's got MADLINE KAHN, BRUCE DERN and ART CARNEY taking second billing. It's a great big wonderful spoof about Hollywood in 1924. It's mad, it's madcap, it's full of hilarity and it's good old-fashioned entertainment. Cameo appearances by 66 famous Hollywood stars to boat. Rated PG

$2.75 1 hr. 32 min.

ELLIOT GOULD is at it again. A comedy in the M.A.S.H. tradition. This time it's human guinea pigs, chemical warfare and impotence. There's a lot of laughing gas thrown in for good measure not to mention JENNIFER O'NEILL who ends up in a very sexy nightgown. "Whiffs," it's a satirical, romantic comedy adventure. It's also the story of regular guy in love with a regular nurse in a not so regular situation. A great mix for some great entertainment. Rated PG

$2.75 1 hr. 36 min.
Highlighted Week II

"LIFEGUARD"

Not a beach picture in the traditional sense . . . it's exciting, real and provocative. How do you choose between the rewards of the beach and the temptations of the business world or the other way around. The "Lifeguard" every girl's summer dream . . . or is he? It's a film about growing up in alot of ways. Acting is good . . . girls are good looking and the music — title song by Paul Williams — is super. "Lifeguard" an exciting new film with an exciting new star . . . SAM ELLIOTT. Rated PG

$3.25 1 hr. 36 min.

"carrie"

The runaway suspense hit . . . the surprise thriller of the year. Nobody knew what to expect. Especially at the Prom. Starring Sissy Spacek and John Travolta, "Carrie" is unexpected terror . . . terror that hits only when you least expect it. Was she capable of causing it all to happen? She did have the power . . . but who would have believed it. A new horror classic. Don't you dare miss it! Rated R

CHINO

The international star CHARLES BRONSON is just as bad as he can get in "Chino". He's a mexican-Indian who alot of people don't like, which is too bad for them because when "Chino" gets mad things get pretty wild. Excitement, action and thrills as only BRONSON can give them to you. JILL IRELAND is there too, as beautiful as ever. Two stars and alot of action. Rated PG

CHILLERS

Someone is up to no good in "The Terror House" . . . sort of makes sense with a title like that doesn't it . . . and a young couple are about to find out who and maybe even why. The girl tried to make a phone call, but the nice old lady stopped her. Some people said it was a nice place to visit . . . but after you see it you might not agree. A very unusual shocker . . . we know you'll agree with that, won't you? If terror is your trip, turn on "The Terror House", a tale calculated to startle the entire family, even the watchdog. Rated R

$2.50 1 hr. 22 min.

The Legend of Boggy Creek

You know how legends are . . . well everyone thought they knew about Boggy Creek. They didn't. There was a lot more than anyone knew below the surface. A real chiller. Find out the truth behind the legend if you can stick it out until the end. Did something actually stalk the banks or did they all just imagine what they saw at Boggy Creek. Find out on Telecinema.

$2.50 1 hr. 30 min.

An incredible film that seems like science fiction but strangely enough it's based on science fact. Grown in test tubes, they were created to conquer the world. Super killers that couldn't be stopped . . . and no one knew until one lone man discovered the awful truth. He had to be found and destroyed. A film steeped in terror and unexpected excitement. Do you have any smelling salts in the house? Rated R

During the years of prosperity, a giant loading crane is installed in the harbor. The heroes now become a nuisance.

Hugo flees to the mainland, to become a favorite of the other children but not of the teacher, where Aban Khan orders Hugo apprehended, and demands the death penalty.

DOUBLE HEADER

Their deadly mission: to crack the forbidden island of Han!

Enter The Dragon

"Enter The Dragon" was the first martial arts film to be made by a major studio.

Now almost a legend, and the ultimate in martial arts/actors, muscular, young BRUCE LEE was the best . . . the most exciting . . . his untimely death was a great loss, not only to motion pictures but also to the world of martial arts. Here is a great document of his art, his craft and the excitement he generated in his brief but impressive career. If you're into martial arts, this is a film for you. If your into the legend of Bruce Lee, you can't miss it. It's all here in the Lee film "Enter The Dragon" . . . rugged sport to deadly combat . . . karate, hapkido, kung fu and judo. Explosive action. Rated R

The sailor who fell from grace with the sea

A truly sensuous film starring two powerful personalities . . . Two beautiful people . . . two superb actors.

A young British widow SARAH MILES and an American merchant seaman KRIS KRISTOFFERSON fall in love on one of his visits to England. To her, he offers a release for the erotic sensuality she has repressed since her husband's death. In his love for her, he finds a sanctuary from the sea, with which he has become disillusioned.

To the widow's strangely precocious 13-year-old son JONATHAN KAHN, the sailor becomes a shining idol, a hero, the perfect and strong man of the sea. But when the sailor returns from a voyage and makes plans to marry the widow and settle down to domesticity on land, the son — unwilling to surrender the hero's image on which he has based his beliefs — conspires with four of his teenage friends to preserve that image and return the sailor to a state of grace with the sea.

Kristoffersen has written a beautifully haunting theme to accompany this most unusual motion picture. Adult entertainment at it's finest and most daring! Rated R

$2.50 1 hr. 45 min.

FOR ADULTS OF

LOVE. ACTION. COMEDY. SUSPENSE. EXCITEMENT.

Before Rhett kissed Scarlett.
 Before Laurel met Hardy.
 Before Butch Cassidy met the Sundance Kid.
 Before any movie ever made you laugh or cry or fall in love.

There was a handful of adventures who made flickering pictures you could see for a nickel.
