

Quick Action Urged on Color TV

New York Times (1923-Current file); Oct 20, 1953;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The New York Times with Index
pg. 34

Quick Action Urged on Color TV

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (UP)—
Representative Charles A. Wolverton, Republican of New Jersey, and chairman of the House of Representatives Commerce Committee, said today the Federal Communications Commission should give an immediate go-ahead for color television. Mr. Wolverton, who last week witnessed a demonstration of color television in New York along with commission members, said the exhibition was "an outstanding success."