TO MAKE COLOR TV TUBE

Thomas Electronics to Produce Chromatic 21-Inch Type

PASSAIC, N. J., Dec. 18 (AP)—
Thomas Electronics, Inc., today announced it has signed a contract to produce 21-inch color television tubes for the Chromatic Television Laboratories, Inc., of Oakland, Calif.

The Thomas Company, independent manufacturer of cathode ray tubes, is the second to be licensed to produce the tubes. The other company is the Crosley division of Avco Manufacturing Company.

Robert E. Burrows, sales manager, did not disclose the size of the contract to produce the tubes invented by Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, director of the radiation laboratories of the University of California.
